Reduction/Redeployment of Scientists in ICAR

3158. SHRI SUBAS MOHANTY: Will the Minister of AGRICULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether the recent decision of the Indian Council of Agricultural Research to reduce/redeploy scientists and other personnel is going to affect the promotional prospects of the scientists as well as research projects; and

(b) if so, the long-term as well as short-term measures being taken to safeguard their interests against the chances of stagnation in both the spheres?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND COOPERATION IN THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE (SHRI YOGENDRA MAKWANA): (a) There is no decision to reduce the number of scientists and other personnel deployed on research schemes/ projects undertaken by the Indian Council of Agricultural Research. Redeployment is resorted to fulfil the priority Research and Development goals and to provide focus or new frontier areas of research. Such measures are not intended to affect the promotional prospects of the Scientists or the research projects.

(b) In view of (a) above, no long term or short term measures to guard aganist chances of stagnation are necessary.
